Special Award Nominees

Services to Fandom

Martin Kealey:

For the many years he has contributed web server space for fan organisations free of charge, as well as administering the sf.org.nz group of domains.

Services to Science Fiction

Ken Catran

Ken Catran is a New Zealander whose fiction titles for young adults include several prize winners, and most have a science fiction focus (as evident in titles like "Doomfire on Venus" from the Solar Colonies trilogy and "Space-Wolf"). He has long been a force on the NZ Science Fiction scene, although his works are published in Australia by the University of Queensland Press and is distributed in NZ by Penguin Books. Ken regularly visits schools and is dedicated to helping young people share his passion for SF.

The Sir Julius Vogel Awards recognise excellence in Science Fiction, Fantasy and Horror by New Zealanders.

The Sir Julius Vogel Awards are given for work by fans and professionals that was undertaken, completed or released in the year previous to voting. This year the works being voted on are from 2004.

They are voted on by New Zealand fans and are presented at the National Science Fiction convention each year.

The Sir Julius Vogel Awards are administered by SFFANZ, the Science Fiction and Fantasy Association of New Zealand.

This year the National Science Fiction Convention is Icon, taking place at Easter, 2005 in Wellington.

Icon can be contacted at <http://www.icon.sf.org.nz>.

SFFANZ supports Science Fiction and Fantasy in New Zealand and can be contacted at enquiries@sffanz.sf.org.nz or <http://www.sffanz.sf.org.nz>
